

Safer, Greener and Cleaner

The Liberal Democrat vision for Redbridge

Cutting local crime

- 1 Every ward must have its own dedicated police team
Increase community work by youth & adult offenders
CCTV protection in key areas throughout Redbridge

Cllrs Richard Hoskins & Azfar Ejaz say "We will fight crime and the fear of crime across the whole borough, not just Ilford Town Centre"

"We will end the years of grime and make recycling a priority" say Cllrs Gary Staight & John Tynes

Greener and Cleaner

- 2 Improve street cleaning and recycling facilities
Speed up graffiti cleaning wherever it appears
All year round garden waste recycling collection
Safeguard our green spaces

Reduce anti-social behaviour

- 3 Make effective Acceptable Behaviour Contracts with Anti-Social Behaviour Orders (ASBO's) for the worst offenders
Create positive facilities for young people
Stop alcohol sales at premises which cause problems

Cllr Felicity Banks says "We must reduce anti-social behaviour with positive action"

Making the Difference

Control Council Tax

4

Council Tax has risen as Tory & Labour administrations fail to control their spending

We will improve services and give real value for money

Cllr Hugh Cleaver pledges "We will invest in services and stop the unaffordable Tory white elephant schemes."

"We will continue to back our excellent schools. Our children are all our futures." says Cllr Ralph Scott

The best for our children

5

Continue to invest in our excellent schools

Involve young people in shaping the boroughs future

Use the Olympics to improve sports facilities in our schools

Local decisions count

6

Increase the power of local Area Committees, so that local people can take local decisions

Open the Council up, involve people and listen to what they say

Cllr Ian Bond says "We will end the dead hand of the 10 person Tory Cabinet and bring power back to people like you."

LIB DEMS CAMPAIGN FOR A BETTER REDBRIDGE

It is time make Redbridge Council work for local people. Residents should be involved, and heard. Area Committees should give local people more power to make local decisions.
